Property Description

Avenida Almirante Reis is an avenue located in the parishes of Arroios, Santa Maria Maior and Areeiro, in the centre of Lisbon. It goes from Rua da Palma to Praça Francisco Sá Carneiro. It honors the figure of Admiral Carlos Cândido dos Reis (1852- 1910), a republican revolutionary.

Formerly called Avenida D. Amélia, he saw, after the republican revolution of 1910, his name be changed to the current name. It is a place of daily passage for any Lisboner who moves to the city centre, coming from Areeiro or Arroios. It is one of the most multicultural areas of the city.
