Property Description

Aura residences are not only luxurious, but they also share something with Lisbon that can't be measured just by seeing, touching or smelling; something that appears exclusively to those who experience it, an emanence coming from its culture, its present and its past.

Privacy, peace, quiet and well being will be constant feelings but you may also feel the calling of Lisbon's hot summer nights. Aura is a green oasis in the midst of a city full of energy, a refuge only for those who know the best of both worlds.

Lisbon's city centre is a perfect mixture of old and new.

Avenida da Liberdade, only a few meters from Aura, is a fine example of this.

We're side by side with an ancient culture but also close to luxury commerce such as Prada, Dior, Chanel, Louis Vuitton and others, or luxury grocery stores such as Delidelux.

The whole area surrounding Aura is rich in local commerce but it also has a global touch that tells you that you can find anything you want here, especially happiness.
