Property Description

Classic Madeira Farm, with years of history, with plants, trees and flowers absolutely uniques !

It is a Property with 50.000 m2, with entrance on a road to the North and South, in a unique location in Funchal/Monte

. On the Property, in addition to the diversity of plants, trees and flowers, passes a stream, has a water tank and a water mine.

The first House, with two floors, is a classic house with several bedrooms, a living and dining room, kitchen, w/c, with excellent light, facing South, and with a wonderful patio. At the back, there is storage space and a barbecue.

The second House, situated further down, with four divisions on one floor, and facing South too, needs some works.

In this area of Funchal (Monte), the climate is spectacular, being a refuge of some Portuguese and foreign Nobility.

Ideal for an Hotel structure, nursing home, etc...due to climate, unique location with superb views over the Ocean, Funchal Bay and Mountains.

Funchal/Monte was the final resting place of Emperor Charles I of Austria, the last of the Habsburg rulers of the Austro-Hungarian empire, who died here in 1922. His last residence in Madeira was Quinta do Monte, near the Parish Church.

The rehabilitation of the Museum of Romanticism in Monte/Funchal is currently underway.
