Property Description

Located in the peaceful countryside just a 2-minute drive from the centre of Boliqueime, this unique family home in the charming area of Ribeiro is a true gem. The property consists of two houses connected by a 30m conservatory, offering multiple options for living arrangements. Whether it's a home for a family with the ability to rent out the other house, two separate homes for two families, or renovating to have one side as the living spaces and the other as the bedrooms, this property is versatile and offers endless possibilities.

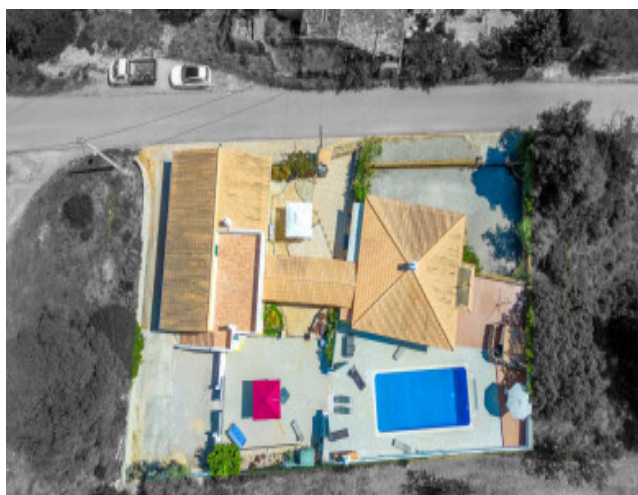

The slightly smaller of the two houses has its own driveway and access to a large swimming pool. The interior features a spacious open plan living, dining and lounge area, two bedrooms and one shared bathroom. Both bedrooms are equipped with air conditioning and fans and there is a loft for additional storage, an outside laundry room and a storage room.

The larger of the two houses has a stunning open plan kitchen, living and dining area, with one bathroom for the guest room and a large master suite with a private en-suite bathroom. Each bedroom has fitted wardrobes and air conditioning, as well as a pellet burner for added warmth during the cooler months. The house also has a loft, outside storage room, laundry room, roof terrace and another loft. This side of the house has its own driveway and private courtyard.

The conservatory linking the two houses features a small bedroom that can be added to either side of the house. The property is situated on a quiet country road, yet is very accessible to two supermarkets, a school and the village of Boliqueime.

Overall, this unique and versatile property is perfect for families looking for ample space and privacy while still being close to amenities and the peaceful countryside.
