Location:

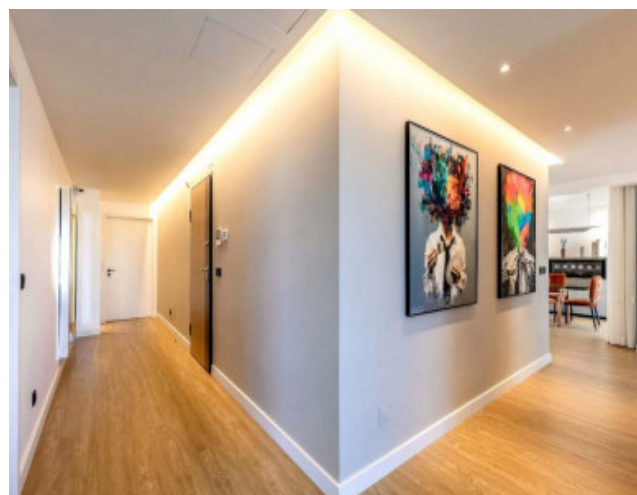

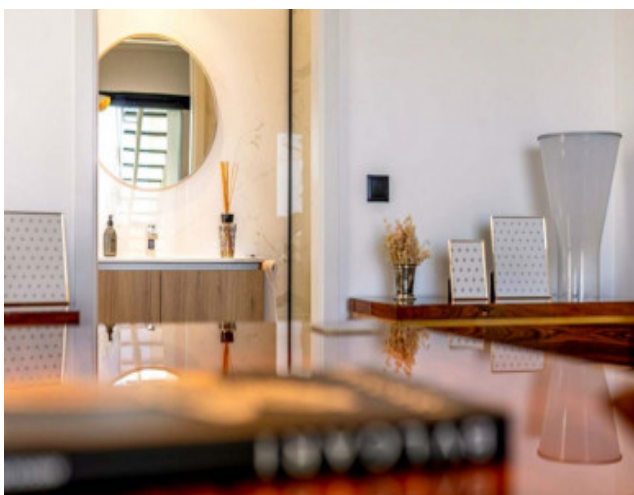

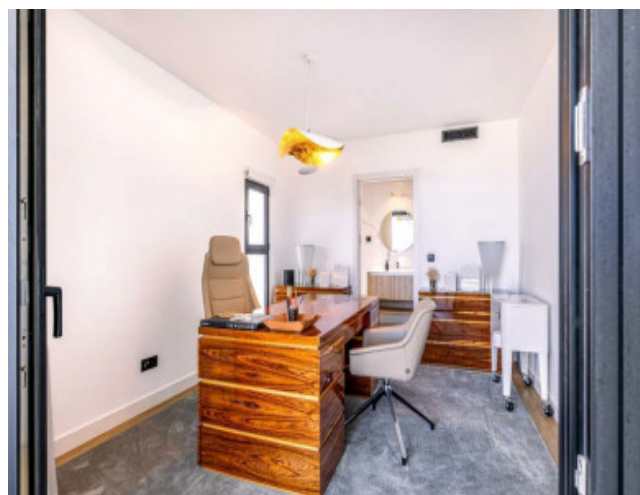

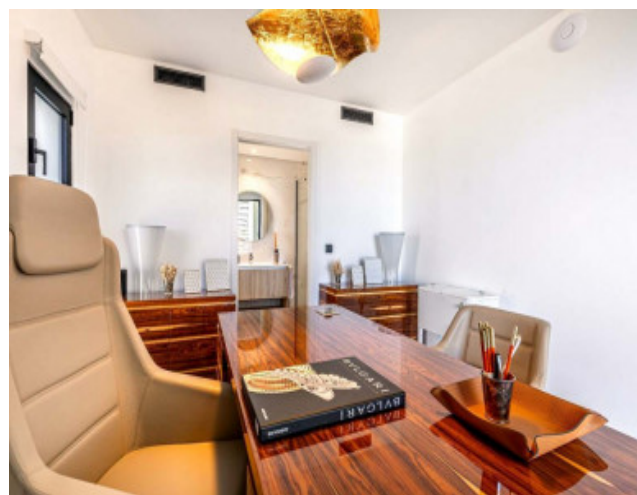

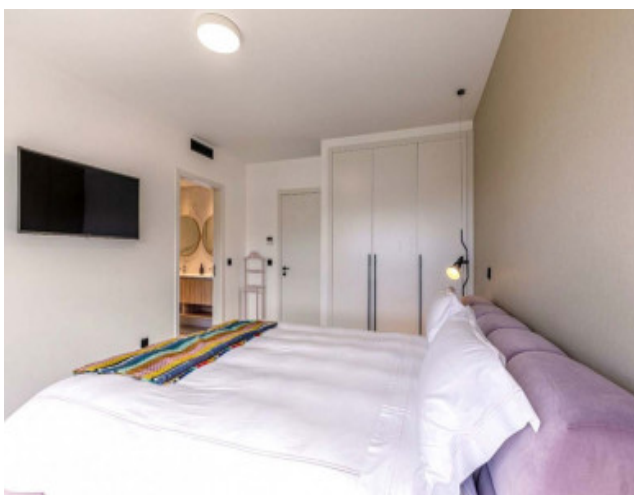

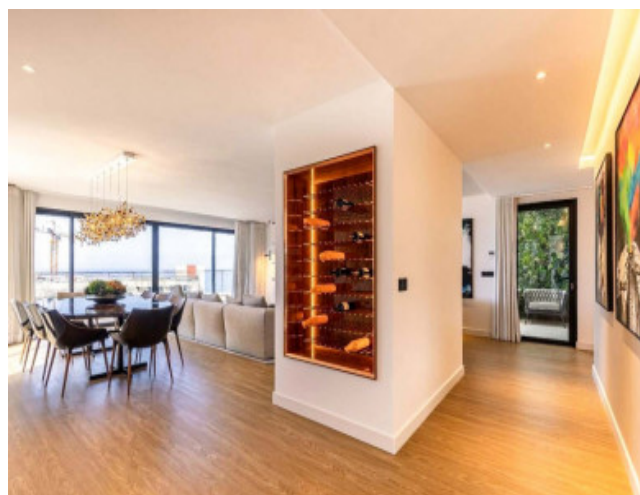

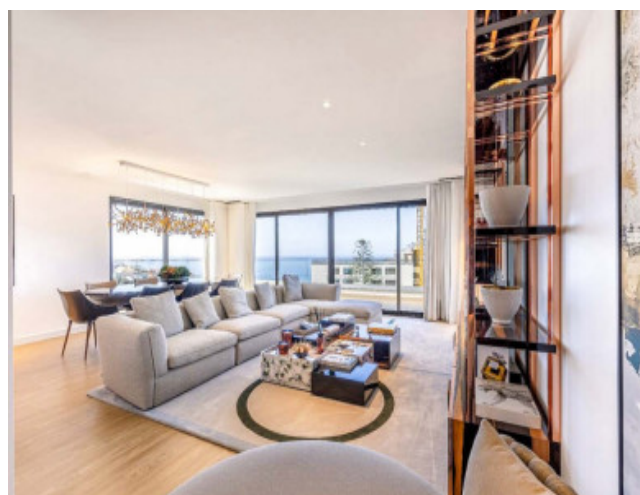

Estrada Monumental is a prominent road in Funchal, the capital of Madeira, Portugal. It runs along the southern coastline of the island, offering stunning views of the Atlantic Ocean and the surrounding landscape. This road is well-known for its beautiful architecture, lush gardens, and upscale hotels and resorts, making it a popular area for both locals and tourists.

The name "Estrada Monumental" reflects its significance, as the road is flanked by several monuments, gardens, and landmarks, and it serves as a main thoroughfare connecting various parts of the city. It's also a gateway to the western part of the island, providing easy access to attractions such as the famous Lido swimming complex and the vibrant tourist areas.

It's an ideal location for walking, with scenic views of the coastline, and offers a nice mix of modern infrastructure and natural beauty, making it a must-see area in Funchal
